Alphabetized Listings of all Obituaries

The staff of the Locust Hill Cemetery has compiled two books of over one thousand (1000) obituaries for Locust Hill Cemetery, Valley View Cemetery in South Kortright and the South Kortright Cemetery. We have three sets of books. One set was donated to the Hobart Historical Society and this set is available for use at any of their scheduled open houses. Their schedule of activities are available at the web site <http://www.hobarthistoricalsociety.org/> . This site is currently under redesign and some features might not function at this time. The other two (2) sets are retained at our office. We will sign out one of these sets for use if you are in the Hobart area.

The alphabetized listing displayed here represents all the obituaries we have on file as of August 23, 2010. We would be happy to share electronically any of the obituaries we have on file. You may make a request by email by writing locusthill@stny.rr.com with your request. If you have any obituaries that we do not have on file we would appreciate copies. Please send by email to the above address or by regular mail to the address at the top of this page.
