Generation No. 1

1. JOHN (I)² LORD (*UNKNOWN*¹) was born Abt. 1750 in England, or Kingston, Ulster Co., NY, and died Bet. 1800 - 1810 in Prob. Sullivan Co., NY. He married INDIAN WOMAN VANDUNK Bet. 1770 - 1772 in NJ, daughter of WILLIAM VANDUNK and RA-JA-HI-A. She was born Bet. 1755 - 1758 in NJ, and died Prob. in Delaware Co., NY.

Notes for JOHN (I) LORD:

Over the years, little to no research has been forthcoming—I'm certain I've made errors hooking folks together, This line is not mine (sss/fss) by blood—but, the over marriages, intermingling, was/ is so heavy, it took on a life of it's own. Other than Bess Hope, in MO, the Barbers, Dee Zito—all due/given credit—I've done the best I can from 600 to 1400 mi. away- hope anyone seeing errors will correct, make right—rather than allow mistakes to keep on keeping on.

JOHN LORD I

John Lord was enumerated on the 1790 Federal Census, living in Middletown, Ulster Co., New York. He had a son over 16 (this was most likely John, Jr., b. 1775), is known to have a daughter, Margaret, but she was not included—missed, visiting or working in another household. How long he had been in Ulster Co. isn't known. Family lore (descendants of John II) say he stowed away on a ship from England, having been punished by his father. This may be a true story, although possibly attributed to the wrong generation. Supposedly, he did 7 years apprenticeship in “the mines”—information meshing/corroborating the written / oral records of Deliverance Adams, this may be the time spent in New Jersey, written of below.

Records located on Muster Rolls of New York Provincial Troops 1755, record John Lord being recruited as a laborer to “help build forts and remove encroachments” on his Majesty's lands to the north of Albany. He worked under Captain John Slap from Connecticut, and on 5 Dec 1755 was paid wages for 32 days work. (Thanks to Art Barber for this research note)

Joyce Hanson, desc. of Freeman Allen Lord, posted this note on her site: “Rev. under General Sullivan, Battle of Newtown, near Elmira, NY “

John Lord I and Deliverance Adams both served in the Revolutionary War. John Lord is also attributed with service in the Militia, his location being Kingston area. After they were mustered out, it appears they stayed together, both working the tin mines of New Jersey, which would be in the (current) Cranbury Lake area, or in and around what is currently Ringwood, Mahwah, New Jersey. It was while here they met, married, sisters, (possibly cousins), who were Native American Indians. Deliverance wife's name survived, she was a VanDunk—the Dutch, and the Swedes, commonly intermarried Indians. It would easily follow, the men— having worked and lived together— would meet, court, marry, women who were related.

John Lord I might have married into the Fransisco, (Sisco) De Groat (DeGrauw), Milligan (Milliken) families — names common to the Indians of that area, (as was the name Gould, DeWitt, Thorne, Perry, Johnson, etc.) However, examining available records, Fransisco, DeGroat and Milligan appear to be more common as neighbors at a later period.

In so doing, she would still have been related to Deliverance's wife. The current tribal rolls of the Indians of Southern Tier New York, Northern Jersey, (Ramapo Mountain Indians, located in Rockland/Orange Cos, New York, Bergen/ Passaic Cos., New Jersey) dating from the mid-1700s, trace the families of VanDunk, DeGroat, Conklin, Sisco/ Fransisco, (among many others) forward to this day, all being inter-related.

Research by the Archaeology Department of the State of Delaware, under the able direction of Ned Heite, and the knowledge, records, of the New Jersey Indian Commission under James Lone Bear Revy substantiate the migration of some of these families upwards out of the Del Marva Peninsula, through Ulster, Orange, Rockland, Delaware, Sullivan, counties.

Both John Lord I, his close friend - Deliverance Adams, lived in the area of Mamakating, Ulster Co. New York where most of their children were born. John Lord I is said to have come into the area now named after him, Lordville, New York - about 1800. Under a Pennsylvania Land Warrant, he had purchased land around Equinunk from the Mitchell brothers, Jacob, Joseph and James, who were sons of Nathan Mitchell, his wife, Elizabeth Ross. (she born in NJ)

Altho Marjorie Anderson's book gives Jeremiah Lord as father to John I, with Lois Thomas as his mother, with all the Thomas connections, it seemed a likely idea—no other information corroborates this. Thorough and time consuming research have not turned a mention of this nor could a hired researcher turn up the referenced document. No one in the family used the name Jeremiah for a boy—ever. No one names a girl Lois—giving appearance to the belief they weren't even kinfolk. There were several ADAMS families in the area—who lived near one another. (3 separate groups) There were more than a few LORDS-also at least 2 and possibly 3, distinct lines)—definitely, not all were related.

Cora Fanny Hopkins Kellam, (1860-1950) stated, 1949, "my great grandmother was a VanDunk, her sister or cousin, was the wife of the John Lord they named Lordville after."

Be-ti-a VanDunk is listed in the Bible of James' youngest son, Samuel, (note dated 1834) as being full blood Minisink Indian—her sister/cousin would be, also.

Was John Lord I married more than once?—possible, no information has surfaced to indicate this. Even though there were 3 Lord families in/around the area in question, John Lord I, his descendants had no known connection to the others, no interaction that has shown so far.

These two families, Lord and Adams, other old settler names, are joined at the hip for all the generations. It appears solving the puzzle has to be done by working as many groups as possible.

LORDVILLE

"A station on the Erie road, one mile below Equinunk. It received its name from John Lord, an old and honored settler of the place, lately deceased. His son Alvah has been for several years past, till last year, supervisor. Richard Lord, a brother of John, for a long time occupied and owned the farm opposite the upper end of Equinunk Island, and succeeded Josiah Russ.

"Just east of the village of Lordville the Ancestral soil begins. The first place you approach on the North side of the road now cleared and the house now standing, somewhat remodeled and improved, was built by Angeline Jensen's cousin, William Ellsworth, husband of a daughter of Sarah Adams Cole. They lived there until another cousin, Dee Lord, occupied it."

The next place on the South side of the road cleared, and the house built by Fred Hall. His wife was Jane Ellsworth, another cousin of Angeline Jensen. That was a very quaint little house. Adjoining it on the same side of the road was the house now known as the Adams Homestead. It was built by Moses Hughes, whose wife was Betsey Lord from whom my father (Benjamin Adams) bought it. It has been in the possession of the Adams family ever since.

(this in the 1930s)

The house on the North side of the road opposite the Adams Homestead was built by Rolla Adams, brother to Cora Adams Ballard. Rolla's wife was Hattie Cole, a daughter of Sarah Adams Cole.

THE OLD RED LORD HOUSE

Where we are now assembled (Lordville) is on land given by Abe Lord to his son, William Lord. The ground was cleared and the home built by himself and his wife, Polly Adams Lord, my father's (Benjamin Adams) sister. The adjoining property of two hundred acres was cleared and the house known as the Old Red House, built by Abe Lord. His wife was Rebecca, a sister to Angeline Jensen's mother (who was Esther Cole perhaps Lord).

Leaving this place and following up the lower road, just above the fork of the road, was a small house opposite a big saw mill which stood for years on the left side of the road. At one time, Jonathan Adams (son of James and Phebe (Thorne) Adams lived there, and it is where his beloved wife, Lydia, died, for whom he wrote much memorial verse and mourned (her) to his dying day.

Following up this road we reach another road, turning to the north, known as the Jay Lord road. Up to this road, a mile or more, less, one finds a large farm cleared and the house built by Jay Lord, son of Lydia Adams Lord.

Back to the Lordville-French Woods road one finds a famous spring of water known as "The big Watering Trough". Opposite was a mill, near this was a log house built by Zillard Minard, occupied for years by himself and his wife, Nancy Lord, Abraham Lord's daughter.

Back and to the Southeast of the Lordville- French Woods road, we see where a small house stood. This farm of 100 acres was known as the Wallace Adams place. Adjoining this on the right is a farm known as Dodge Maria Adams farm. Opposite this farm, across the creek to the left, is a farm known as the Benjamin Adams farm. It was cleared and occupied by Benjamin Adams, his wife, Angeline Jensen Adams. Adjoining this farm is a farmhouse still standing, which was (if not built by him) occupied by Lydia Adams, her husband, Marshall Lord. (In Dr. Ballard's time, it was occupied for years by Marshall Lord, Lydia Adams Lord's son).

Adjoining this farm and the big Adams farm is a large farm which was once occupied by Freeman Jensen, Angeline Jensen's brother, his wife, Clarissa Adams, who was Benjamin Adams sister. (sister and brother married brother and sister—you'll see a lot of that in this book!). The other farm adjoining this farm belonged to a relative of Angeline Jensen Adams family.

Close to this is the French woods settlement which was one of the first "Back From the River Settlements" cleared. It seemed to be a very promising location. Two groups of men erected mills and made extensive preparations to conduct large business transactions there, but they became involved in debt; the mills rotted down, the forest crept over the sites.

Notes for INDIAN WOMAN VANDUNK: John Lord's wife was said to be a sister or cousin to Deliverance Adams wife. Both women had met the two men when they were working the tin mines in New Jersey.

Her age is estimated from the age of Be-ti-a, which is recorded. Her children's ages, where they are given on census, are usually close as to accuracy. The others are estimated given known children's ages, marriages.

The Lord-Adams family connection had gone back a long time. Probably since Connecticut days, altho this is only the author's speculation, with no proof as far as documents go.

The Adams-Lord Lumbering project had been set up/ run by the elder Lord, with Deliverance Adams. They hired many of their friends for work with this. Deliverance, the Lords visited back and forth, evidenced by family letters, oral history. Some years ago, I sent much information along these lines to Agnes Whitaker, also, to Eleanor Keesler for their files. Marjorie Thomas Anderson in her book mentions being told some of the foregoing by Mrs. Keesler. Proven facts are the continuing over marriage of the two families, their double, triple cousinships.

John Lord settled in Lordville, Delaware Co., New York about 1800. His will, which does not mention his wife—very much alive, appearing on the 1850 Federal, and 1855 New York State census—mentions the “Island in the river”.

His will, filed in Delhi, New York, gives to his children Freeman A., Diana, James A., 200 acres each, Freeman’s containing the house in which he, John, now lived. Which would explain for certain why wife/Mother, Lydia, was residing with Freeman in 1850, 1855 census.

Hannah, Lucinda, Phoebe, Richard received 2/10 of the balance. John Lord, Jr., was named executor.

John Lord Jr of Hancock, Delaware County, NY, on June 23, 1804, purchased from James Hasbrouck and Jonathan Hasbrouck of Kingston, Ulster County, NY, land in Great Lot 2, subdivision of lot 32, lot 16, on a map by John A DeWitt, Josiah Curtis, and David Dorrance, 690 acres.

Witnesses Geo Tappan and Jno G Jansen. Recorded June 25, 1804. Pages 5-8.

Asa Apley and Stephen Reed on May 1, 1802, purchased from John Lord and Lydia his wife of Colchester, Delaware County, NY, land in Shawcana?, lot 5, 370 acres. Witnesses Jonas Lakin and Henry Sands. Recorded September 15, 1807. Pages 387-389.

4. MARGARET³ LORD (JOHN (I)², UNKNOWN¹) was born Bet. 1780 - 1782 in Ulster Co., NY, and died Dec 1864 in Lordville, Delaware Co., NY. She married (1) BENJAMIN THOMAS 29 Dec 1799 in Prob. Lordville—Delaware Co., NY, son of AARON THOMAS and ELIZABETH DAVIS. He was born Bet. 1778 - 1779 in CT or PA, and died Bet. May - Aug 1811 in Hancock, Delaware Co., NY. She married (2) MOSES THOMAS 29 Dec 1811 in Hancock, Delaware Co., NY, son of AARON THOMAS and ELIZABETH DAVIS. He was born Bet. 1789 - 1790 in PA, and died

Bet. 11 Aug 1858 - 1859 in Lordville, Delaware Co., PA.

Notes for MARGARET LORD: Margaret Lord married Thomas brothers, first Benjamin, then Moses. She's buried in the Stockport, New York Cemetery, next to daughter, Susan, who married a Knight.

Notes for BENJAMIN THOMAS: Family Lived next to John Lord in Ulster Co., then all were in Lordville on the 1800 Census. After the death of his Mother, Elizabeth, Benjamin helped his father, especially taking care of Moses, he being 10 years old.

When he purchased the lumbering tract, 1810 (court house records) they were living in Buckingham Co., Pennsylvania. After this purchase, they moved back to the Lordville area, he died shortly there after. He may be buried in the old cemetery in Lordville, but there is no stone to tell for certain.

More About BENJAMIN THOMAS and MARGARET LORD: Marriage: 29 Dec 1799, Prob. Lordville—Delaware Co., NY

Notes for MOSES THOMAS: Benjamin Thomas died, and Moses married the widow a few weeks short of the birth of her last child by her first husband, Moses' brother. Margaret ultimately had 9 children by 2nd husband, Moses Thomas. All grew up to manhood, except one, who, at three years old, fell into a spring and was drowned. The Thomas family are very numerous in, around, Hancock." Source for quote: W. W. Munsell 1855 NY state census shows the birthplace of this couple.

Moses not only took over the care and rearing of his dead brothers 7 children, he also took on the lumber tract, it's mortgage, selling the property in 1843 (court house records). When you realize Moses was some 11 years his brothers junior, about that much younger than Margaret, (Moses was 21 when they got married) you have to give him a tremendous amount of credit—plus Margaret must have been some lady! This story was known in the family (not always happily), appeared in an early Hancock newspaper. (clipping furnished late 1970s by Agnes Whitaker)

Note of this also appears in Marjorie Anderson's book "The Thomas Saga."

5. JAMES³ LORD (JOHN (J)², UNKNOWN¹) was born Bet. 1784 - 1789 in Ulster - Sullivan Co., NY, and died Aft. 1870. He married (1) UNKNOWN Bet. 1805 - 1807 in Ulster/Delaware Co., NY. She was born Bet. 1785 - 1790, and died Bef. 1817. He married (2) MARY (POLLY) UNKNOWN Abt. 1814 in Prob NY State. She was born Bet. 1793 - 1794 in Sullivan Co., NY, and died Aft. 1880 in Manchester Twncsp, Wayne Co., PA.

Notes for JAMES LORD: Interesting comment is that James Mother was a ‘Welsh Woman’. Common among those of mixed ancestry, accounting for the darker complexion/hair color. Weslager made this same remark in his ‘History of the Delaware Indians’—as did Conrad Weiser, noted interpreter/ liaison between settlers and the Mohawk Indians. Also common—there was no mention made of James wife, at least on the pages available, when writing about this family.

Phineas Goodrich makes the observation pg 227 of his ‘Wayne County History’ (reprint 1992)—“ James was assessed, in 1812, as owning four acres of plow land and 439 acres of unimproved land, one house and one horse, although it is claimed he began in 1810.” He settled on the farm now owned by Taylors. James appears on the census,for the last time in 1870, Wayne Co.,

Notes for UNKNOWN: Family lore says she was Delaware Indian, same family as James 2nd wife. This was common—Indian or not. Considering the wildness of the area, makes sense.

Notes for REBECCA COLE:

Rebecca's last name was first reported to be "Jensen". However, a letter from Cora Adams Ballard, daughter of Benjamin Adams and Angeline Jensen, a niece of Freeman Jensen, who married Clarissa Adams, sister to Ben—stated, 1912,

“ My Maternal Grandmother was sister to Abraham Lord's wife, Rebecca.”

This statement is also quoted in a speech Dr. Ballard gave in the 1930s at a Family Reunion in Hancock/Lordville. Solomon Jensen is documentably Angeline Jensen's father (family letters, census records, family Bible) and Cora's grandfather—leaving little room for doubt as to “ her Maternal Grandmother.”

Rebecca was contemporary in age—a year apart, as noted in census records— with Solomon Jensen, father to Angeline, Freeman, et al. Had she been a Jensen, it would be more likely he was her brother-but this was not how the relationship was explained.

They were both producing children at/ about the same time.

Esther/Hester Cole is the wife of of Solomon Jensen, according to the records of Hancock—Clarence Zurn looked for me.—three descendants records give her maiden name thus.

Using this information— Rebecca, sister to Esther, was a Cole, not a Jenson.

Given the oddities in relationships—older cousins called Aunt, Uncle, Grandfather—Aunt's raising motherless children called Mother, sons-in-laws who were cousins referred to as "much loved sons"—sorting out is definitely a challenge.

The records also state, in Dr. Ballards own hand, plus passed down orally—Angeline Jenson was "half Delaware Indian". As both men and women married Indians, the Jenson name could come from either parent. Native men generally took the wife's name—much like royalty/ nobles of old—when they did not have a last name of their own in the European tradition. Many Native People were given names in the Dutch Reform Church. Often named for their sponsors, the sorting becomes mind boggling.

Arriving In Lordville

October 1850 - George Lord agreed "to faithfully keep and attend sufficient and safe boats and so many men to work the same together with sufficient implements for a Ferry during the several hours in each day, and at such several rates as the Court granting said license shall from time to time order and direct". License issued by County Court of the County of Delaware - town of Hancock. (this was at Equinunk station.)

"From 1878 Charles Sherwood ran a bus (hack) between Equinunk and Lordville. His successor, Oakley Tyner, in 1911, kept six fine horses, three-four seated canopy top wagons, ten buggies (one a surrey), three lumber wagons and two drivers besides himself to cart people and goods for stores and hotels". Corroberating statements made by Mrs. Wheeler to Bess Hope. Adams/Park/ Lord desc of St. Louis, MO - 1970s., when Mrs Hope was doing her excellent work on the Wayne co families of Lord, Park(s). We did not know each other/ nor share research at that time.

There has been raised a question as to who Delanah actually was. Following is that query, and email regarding the problem. anyone.

Hi Sheila,

I'm still trying to get to the bottom of things regarding my gg-grandmother. Was she born Delanah Wheeler or Delanah Lord. I have her as Delanah Wheeler, but Lord genealogies have her as Delanah Lord. I'd like to compare notes if possible.

Gary Wheeler

Gary,

Thought I was farther behind than it turns out——can lay THIS guilt trip to rest.

I've been told since early 1970s Delanah Lord is the lady's name?

BUT——apparently, after reading your research, there is a question in your own line anyway, she was Delanah Wheeler, and "fits".

Is it possible she was briefly a Wheeler, he died she married a brother/cousin, also a Wheeler?

Happened a lot—the Thomas family and the Adams, rife with this— having done this both familiarly and professionally for probably longer than you are alive, it happened all the time. Proximity breeds a lot more than contempt? <g>

The available death certificates for the kids go both ways—— which led me to wonder at the both being correct, bit— She was a Lord, a dble Wheeler. Course, she could have been a Wheeler, then md a Lord who died or took off——lot of that going around, too and then md Royal?

Cora Adams Ballard, who, with my own gt. Grandmother Cora, whom I knew——had the reunions, kept humongous journals, (burned in total in the front yard in Lordville by Cora's nasty son, Col Ballard) said she was a Lord. Altho I've caught Dr. Cora Adams Ballard in a few lies —of omission, you might say— her info has always proven to be correct.

Not sure how we can solve it for certain one way or the other, But, I've added your dilemma into the notes, so they reflect that all the information/family tree, is not actually set in cement?

"Looking for more information on my gg-grandfather Royal Wheeler, born 29 Apr 1800 in Montgomery, MA. He is found in the 1860 census in Scott, Wayne Co., . His son, Ebenezer F. Wheeler, a Civil War veteran, is buried Beachlake cemetery, Berlin township, Wayne Co., . His daughter Martha Harriet (Wheeler) Fletcher is buried in Hine, Wayne county. In her last year of diaries in 1886, she writes of visits with her father, so apparently he died after 1886. I would like to find the date of death and place of burial of Royal Wheeler.

Thanks,

While this is not specific to Royal, it does give quite a bit of information regarding the family which might be helpful to anyone searching for this group. It's from Munsell, can be found on-line at the Delaware Co. Genweb site:

PARTRIDGE ISLAND AND ITS PIONEERS

“””””This is an old lumbering and farming hamlet, some six or eight miles above Shehocken, on the east branch. Lemuel Mallory, a carpenter, was one of the first settlers. He resided here many years, and removed to Scott, Wayne county, PA. Where his descendants now live. Ebenezer Wheeler came about 1792 from Massachusetts.

The ancestors of the Hancock and Tompkins Wheelers were among the early settlers in Massachusetts. Three brothers came from Wales in 1738 (sic-probably 1638), and settled in Concord. Their names were Timothy, Ephraim and Thomas, all distinguished themselves in the Indian wars of the time, their history, with that of their descendants, is closely interwoven, connected with that of many of the families of New England.

“Thomas Wheeler “the elder” was buried at Cranfield, Bedfordshire, England in 1634. Of his twelve children by two marriages, seven came to New England in the 1630's: Thomas, Elizabeth, Timothy, Susanna, Joseph, Ephraim, and Thomas (by second wife). Of these, both of the brothers Thomas and their brother Ephraim moved to Fairfield, Connecticut while the others remained in Concord, Massachusetts, except for the daughter Elizabeth, who settled in Lynn, Massachusetts, with her husband Allen Breed."

Review of "The Wheeler Family of Cranfield, England and Concord, Massachusetts and some Descendants of Sgt. Thomas Wheeler of Concord" by M. Wheeler Molyneaux (M. Wheeler Molyneaux, 4701 East Ocean Blvd., Long Beach, CA 90803-3113 $47.5) Nutmegger June 1993 p. 85]

Captain Timothy Wheeler had two horses shot under him in one of the encounters of King Philip's terrible war. A Captain Timothy Wheeler in 1775 had charge of colonial stores at Concord, saving them from capture.

One branch of the family settled in Brantford, Mass., before the Revolution.

One, named William, had five sons, Ebenezer, James, William, John and Joseph, and died in Brantford. The widow married George Hubbell, who by his first wife had three sons, Edmund, George and Silas.

By a second wife he had three sons, Wheeler, Truman and Richard. In the last decade of the 18th century George Hubbell, with the family, left Massachusetts and came to Sidney, N.Y., where they stayed a few years (and where he is buried).

They next located at the mouth of Sands Creek near Shehocken, and in 1798 we find them at Partridge Island.

Here the Wheeler brothers settled and married, except John, who lived a bachelor and was finally, drowned.

Major Ebenezer Wheeler had one son, Ransom, and several daughters, all of whom married respectably. He died in 1814, aged 44. He and his brother were remarkable for physical strength and endurance. William, in 1804, married Eleanor Knox, of Massachusetts, a descendant or relative of General Knox, the aid(sic) of Washington, and lived at Partridge Island till 1814, when he removed to Deposit.

James had three sons, Leroy, Ebenezer and James; the first a physician, the second a lawyer, and the other a farmer, who occupies the homestead. The father died in 1854. Joseph Wheeler had three sons. Franklin, Milton and Rensselaer, the first two lawyers and the latter a farmer. He died in 1858.

Edmund Hubble settled at Ballstown, and George at Little Falls, near Hancock, where he married Paul Newton's daughter. He had two sons, Jefferson and Chester. Chester, his second son, was born in 1799, and is now (1879) living in Deposit.)

Jefferson went to the Legislature, and removed afterward to Honesdale, Pa.

Silas Wheeler went west, Truman and Richard all lived in Hancock for several years. Truman and Richard removed to Tompkins. Richard died there, and Truman removed to Philadelphia, where he died.

Several other Wheelers, relatives of the former, also came to Hancock early from Massachusetts.

Frederick Wheeler, father of Marvin and Royal Wheeler, first settled near Knight's, below Shehocken, and then went to Partridge Island. Marvin Wheeler married Emily, daughter of Captain Conrad Edick, of Deposit. He left two sons, Frederick and Marvin D. One son, Clinton, had died before the father, and two daughters unmarried.

Royal Wheeler, a brother of Frederick, came to Hancock at the same time. He had two sons, Earl and Royal, the former a distinguished lawyer at Honesdale, Pa., now deceased.

One James Wheeler was known as "Fiddler Jim," to distinguish him from the other James, who was called "Tailor Jim." Little is known of his history. One Joseph Wheeler was known as "Hatter Joe," while the other was called

"Innocent Joe."

John Wheeler, cousin to bachelor John, after residing for some years at Partridge Island, removed to or near Barryville. "....."

Notes for JAMES A. LORD:

James was a farmer, residing Lordville his entire life. He and his wife had nine children living when Munsell wrote his history of Delaware Co., New York. James stated he was a farmer in 1855 on the state census for Hancock Town. Quoted directly from W.W. Munsell: copied from Delaware Co. website

"JAMES A. LORD, farmer, post-office Lordville, is a life-long resident of this town, in which he was born April 25th, 1808. Mrs. Lord was formerly Miss Almarine Miner, of Andes, who was born in 1816. They have nine children living. Mr. Lord served three years in the 2nd N.Y. heavy artillery (Company D) during the suppression of the Rebellion, and was shot through the thigh before Petersburg, June 17th. 1864. His grandfather, John Lord, was one of the first settlers in this section, and his father, of the same name, settled here about 1800 and raised a large family, of whom six are living."

17. JOHN⁴ LORD (NATHAN (NATHANIEL)³, JOHN (I)², UNKNOWN¹) was born 1812 in NY State, and died Aft. 1880 in Wayne Co., PA. He married MAY UNKNOWN Abt. 1836 in PA. She was born 1810 in PA.

Notes for JOHN LORD:

Family #21, page 82, Manchester Twntp., Wayne Co., Pa. The age discrepancy could be questioned, except one Lord descendant said there were stories of a John Lord who married an older woman after she had a child or two by him, they lived "on the Pennsylvania side".

This family fits the story. Trying to chase them thru a census track added to age discrepancy—adults AND children. Both appear to be in Wayne Co., Pa, Manchester Twntp., 1880, he listed as 68—she as 73. They have no identifying children in the home, but do have a 9 year old granddaughter, Alma Dexter, she, her parents b. PA. Clues, questions.

Arriving In Lordville

October 1850 - George Lord agreed "to faithfully keep and attend sufficient and safe boats and so many men to work the same together with sufficient implements for a Ferry during the several hours in each day, and at such several rates as the Court granting said license shall from time to time order and direct". License issued by County Court of the County of Delaware - town of Hancock. (this was at Equinunk station.)

"From 1878 Charles Sherwood ran a bus (hack) between Equinunk and Lordville. His successor, Oakley Tyner, in 1911, kept six fine horses, three-four seated canopy top wagons, ten buggies (one a surrey), three lumber wagons and two drivers besides himself to cart people and goods for stores and hotels". Notes for JOHN LORD:

This John Lord may not belong to Abram. Art Barber descends from Abraham's son, Stephen, they have no knowledge of this son, John. This John not named in the estate papers, nor are his children.

They could have rec'd their inheritance early—moved on. They could have belonged biologically to another family member, but raised by Abraham—until someone solves this little “glitch”-

-we'll leave John here for the time being—allowing a few of his descendants to claim Abraham as “their line.”

Notes for ALBERT LORD:

From "Old Veteran Calls," The Cameron County Press, 1910 - 1920:

"Mr. Albert Lord, of Cameron, came to Emporium last Friday to transact some business and celebrate his 77th birthday by calling on his old friends in town. The PRESS was one of the favored ones to enjoy a visit from the old veteran. We are always proud to welcome, at any time, these patriots—sometimes called in 1863, by the copperheads, "Lincoln's Hirelings"— who suffered privations that this, the grandest government on the face of the earth, should not perish. We always feel like downing our hat when we pass by one of those patriots.

"Veteran Lord came to Cameron county in 1855 from Delaware Co., NY, and located at Sinnamahoning (then Clinton county). He enlisted at the outbreak of the rebellion in the 148th Penna Infantry, under Gen'l Jas. A. Beaver. Mr. Lord was confined in southern prisons for seven months [Libby Prison], and of course has suffered considerably from the effects of starvation and disease. We hope he may live to celebrate his 97th anniversary." _____

Alfred Lord Obit Posted by Walt Dean <waltalene@bigvalley.net> Sat, 01 Jul 2000

Albert, a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the justly famous Pennsylvania Bucktails, answered the last long roll, at his residence at Cameron last Sunday afternoon and departed to swell the ranks of that other Grand Army beyond the grave.

Mr. Lord was in the 84th year of his life and had been a resident of this county for many years. At the call to arms in the early 60s, he answered the call, serving his country valiantly throughout that bloody strife. For 14 months he languished in loathsome Libby prison. His death was due to paralysis. The funeral was held yesterday from the home.

Albert, wife, Elizabeth, are both buried in the Richey Cemetery, Cameron Co., Pennsylvania

Dee,

I hope you are available to respond to this! My ggggrandfather was Abraham Lord, son of John and older brother of Jacob. Abraham's wife was Rebecca Jenson (we've been told) and among their children was Stephen. I descend from Stephen's son Zillard, whose daughter Nettie was my grandmother. I have quite a bit of information on this family, some of which I acquired from Emily Homer, whom perhaps you know. I would very much appreciate hearing from you . . . Art Barber

Hi Art! I apologize for the delay in getting back to you. I've been off-line for quite some time now. Yes, I was in touch with Emily Homer! She is an awesome lady, she graciously sent me a lot of information on my direct line last year.

I'd love to share family info with you. I'm looking for a source that definitively ties Jacob to Abraham's family. Have found lots of circumstantial evidence, but nothing concrete. Do you know of Abraham's father left a will? Looking forward to hearing from you,

Dee

40. ALICE⁴ LORD (*JACOB*³, *JOHN (J)*², *UNKNOWN*¹) was born 1845 in Hancock, Delaware Co., NY, and died Bet. Jul - Aug 1870 in Cameron Co., Pa. She married JAMES SHAFFER Abt. 1865 in Pennsylvania. He was born 11 Oct 1840 in Sinnemahoning, Cameron Co., Pa, and died 25 Apr 1923 in Renovo, Clinton Co., Pa.

Notes for ALICE LORD:

Marguerite Randolph's notes say— Alice Lord “died, I think, at Huntley Pa. buried on hill there”. Does not say she was buried in Huntley Cemetery.

More information, no headstone for Alice has been found. She died in the summer, at the height of farming season. Weather alone would have prohibited her being taken back to Delaware Co., NY for interment in either of the Lord cemeteries. She died, was buried, about 4 months after the birth of her son, Orville. In Dec. the family lost the first born child, Orville's only brother at that time, and more than likely, that child was buried in the Mother's grave. A monument may have been planned, in the ensuing new marriage, more children, time slipped by, it wasn't taken care of.

Notes for JAMES SHAFFER:

All information about this line comes from Denise Shaffer-Zito, who generously sent not only her direct line information, but all she had recorded about the other immediate Lord family members who lived around Alice. Denise descends from Orville.

DEATH OF JAMES A. SHAFER AT THE RENOVO HOSPITAL
(Renovo Daily Record, April 26, 1923)

James A. Shafer, an aged and respected resident of South Renovo, died at the Renovo hospital at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon of gangrene and diseases incident to advanced age. Mr. Shafer was born October 11, 1840, at Sinnemahoning, and resided there until about three years ago, having been engaged in farming. Mr. Shafer had his right foot frozen, which caused gangrene and as a result the foot was amputated at the Williamsport Hospital about four years ago. Some time ago gangrene developed in his left foot, and about six weeks ago he was taken to the Renovo Hospital for treatment. He is survived by his wife, three sons, and one daughter: Orville Shafer, Benezette, Pa.; Ralph G. Shafer, Oil City, Pa.; John K. Shafer, South Renovo; and Miss Alice E. Shafer, of South Renovo; also by 7 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Luzerna Huntley of Emporium, Pa. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the residence of his son, John K. Shafer, No. 270 Susquehanna Avenue, South Renovo and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. B.A. Salter of the Methodist Church. Interment will be made in the cemetery at North Bend.

Collins, Ira B., "Royally Rugged Cameron County," 1976, pg. 4 (Printed by Nupp Printing Company, Sykesville, Pennsylvania)

In the latter half of the 1800's there was a big development in camp meetings and revivals. The people of Sinnemahoning seem to have a knack of drawing large crowds. They had a big camp meeting ground where the railroad ran special trains to bring in the crowds. Several preachers would be there to care for the people. One preacher was a hometown man known as Speaker Jim Shaffer. It was no trouble to get Speaker Jim to preach, the job was to get him to stop. During the day they would offer prayers. When Speaker Jim started to pray the other preachers would say "Amen" when he scored a point. He prayed on and on. Finally the preachers would shout "AMEN" and close his prayer for him.

75. ALZINA⁵ LORD (*JOHN*⁴, *NATHAN (NATHANIEL)*³, *JOHN (I)*², *UNKNOWN*¹) was born 16 Mar 1839 in Lordville, Delaware Co., NY, and died 16 Jan 1917 in Williamstown, NY - bur Long Eddy, NY. She married GEORGE GOULD 19 Jun 1871 in Equinunk, Wayne Co., PA, son of JOHN GOULD and MARY GILLARD. He was born 23 Sep 1830 in North Molton, Devonshire, Eng, and died 04 Oct 1910 in Long Eddy, NY - bur Goulds cem..

Notes for GEORGE GOULD:

My brother and I are attempting to bring the Gould/Gillard family of Goulds, Town of Hancock, Delaware County, NY, up to date. (The cousins think we're a little crazy to try, especially as it intertwines with mother's Coulter/Glendenning tree of the town of Bovina, Del. Co., NY.)

John Gould and Mary Gillard were born in Devonshire, England—, John in a little town called North Molton, located under the brow of the moor and never very important. They emigrated in 1834 (John) and 1835 (Mary) to Newburgh, Orange County, NY, where John was a stonemason and built several houses. When times grew bad, John swapped his property in Newburgh for acreage in Delaware County and in the winter of 1841-42, the family migrated to the hills above and back from the river and founded the hamlet of Goulds. John and Mary had nine sons and one daughter.

George Gould was the second son of John and Mary, born 23 Sep 1830 in North Molton, Devonshire, England.

When he returned from service in the Civil War, he became a successful lumber and wood business man in Long Eddy, NY. He married his second wife, Alzina Lord, born 16 March 1839 in either Lordville, NY or Manchester, Wayne Co., PA,(depending on your records or ours) on 19 June 1871 in Equinunk, Wayne County, Pa. He died 4 October 1910 in Long Eddy, buried in the family Cemetery at Goulds. She died 16 January 1917 in Williamstown, NY, is buried in Long Eddy. 77. HENRY HARPER⁵ THOMAS (HENRY HARPER⁴, MARGARET³ LORD, JOHN (I)², UNKNOWN¹) was born Feb 1853. He married MARIA ELIZABETH NORTON 14 Sep 1886 in Delaware Co., New York.

Notes for HENRY HARPER THOMAS:

For a wonderful book on all these families, especially the Thomas, Tyler lines, full of reminiscences, seen and heard first hand, a glimpse of a way of life not to be seen again in our lifetimes— “The Thomas Saga” by Marjorie Thomas Anderson— is recommended. Henry is her father, following is a speck of data from that book.

“Father had been working for some time in western New York, building a government Indian school on the Allegheny Indian Reservation (Seneca). He was now at work on a new church in Salamanca (Seneca again), Catteraugus County, New York, that the Quakers were building for the Indians’ use. The Quakers were very devoted to the Indians welfare”.

His bride to be, Mary Elizabeth Norton, traveled to Salamanca, where they were married in the Congregational Church.

Notes for ISAAC LORD:

This line is to date family info only. An Alberly descendant, 1987, residing Onondaga Co., NY, stated Isaac's grandfather was a James Lord, and his great grandmother was an Indian. The story "fits", but, the name Erastus isn't common to this group, but it is in the group in Broome Co., NY— There is a discrepancy of dates via the census.

Stella Effie Adams was born on 5 May 1880 in Buckingham Township, Wayne, Pennsylvania, died about 1953. Stella married Edward Burdell Lord (b. 22 Mar 1878) about 1898.

Research Notes:

1. U.S. census records for Broome County, New York from 1900 through 1930 list the occupation of Edward Lord as a shoemaker at the Endicott Johnson shoe factories in Johnson City, NY. During that period he and his wife Stella Effie Adams lived:

(a) In 1900 at 7 Harrison Street in what is now Johnson City, in a house owned by Stella's older sister Bessie and her husband Daniel Peters and next door to her older brother Elmer and his wife Lena living at 5 Harrison Street;

(b) In 1910 at 77 Chapin Street in Binghamton's Ward 2 and by 12 September 1918 when Edward registered for the World War I Draft, they were living at 19 Deforest Street in Binghamton's Ward 11.

(c) In Januaray 1920, they were still living at the Deforest Street address, the census listed Charles A. Adams, younger brother of Stella, as a boarder in the household;

(d) By 1930 when Edward and Stella were living on River Road in Chenango Bridge, Broome County, the U.S. census shows Edward owned the property, it was listed as a farm, while his occupation was still shown as an Edge trimmer in a shoe factory. From visits and working at the farm during summer vacations, I (Dick Adams) know Edward Lord worked for Endicott Johnson well into the late 1930s and, with the outbreak of World War II, perhaps into at least the mid 1940s.

Notes for ORVILLE HENRY SHAFFER:

Orville was about 4 months old when his mother, Alice Lord, died. The only Mother he knew, or remembered, was his father's second wife, Ruth. Denise says she has several Thos of Orville, and that he looked like a firm, no nonsense, type of man. When he was told the name of his new gr-granddaughter, Sharon Lee [Ward], Orville's response was, "Hmmp! Movie actress name." He ran a store in Benezette, Elk Co., PA for 50 years.

From The Daily Press, s St. Marys PA, Elk County Sesquicentennial Edition, August 18, 1993 (article donated by Martha Rucki of Benezette)

History of Benezette United Methodist Church, 1870-1970

"The history of Benezette Church would not be complete without mentioning several members whose time and effort helped keep our church going. In the y[e]ar 1919, Orville Shaffer, while the Rev. Forrest was minister, became treasurer. He worked hard to get the S.S.[Sunday School?] out of debt, he also became janitor that year and for 25 years he trudged up the hill at 5 a.m. during winter months to build a fire for S.S. and Church. He retired in 1944. He died in January 1952.

After Orville's retirement, Paul Hollingsworth took over this work and served faithfully until the time of his death in 1957. Orville and his family lived at 1923, Benezette, Elk Co., PA. He and Agnes are both buried in The Benezette Cemetery, Benezette, Elk Co, PA"

Notes for AGNES SEXTON: Agnes' cause of death was cancer, possibly ovarian. An infant is buried in the Benezette Cemetery surrounded by Agnes, Orville and Rhea (no dates on the tombstone). Was the child Agnes' or Rhea's?

I am the grandson of Leonard Lord & Hazel McKinney... No. 114 in your Numbering System .. My Father is Mahlon Lord.

Grandma Lord had 3 boys as she liked to call them. Art, Mahlon (Mickey), and Leonard Jr. (Dude). One of each sibling is now living in the Fort Lauderdale/Palm Beach Florida. Although my mom and father passed on two years ago, Dude's Wife, Betty is still alive and may have some interesting information and Dates that can help fill in the blanks.

Austin Lord, my great-grandfather passed away sometime in 1960 in his middle 90's. I only met him once or twice.

I would like to chat.. My email address is lordjl@aol.com...

Hugs and have a great Day Jim
